

RIVAL PILOTS FRIENDS AGAIN

Connie Mack and Hughie Jennings Have Repaired Their Differences.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 4.—Connie Mack and Hughie Jennings are friends again. Since the close of one of a feud that began when the Athletics lost the New York Giants in the world series back in 1911, Mack and Jennings have been on friendly terms.

"Yes, Connie Mack and I have buried the hatchet. We did it on the last trip of the Athletics to the west. I always liked Mack, but we fell out. How? Well, here's the tale."

"When I was playing Pittsburgh for the world's championship in 1909, John McGraw came to me and helped me lay my plans for battle."

"Two years later, McGraw was hooked up with the Athletics in the world series, and he called on me for aid. I came to McGraw and helped him, as you should. I helped him."

"When Mack was in the west, we talked it all over. Time has helped a lot, and we decided to forget the past. We are the best of friends now. Ask Connie, and while I am sure that our teams will fight it out for pennant, Mack and I will join our personal record for each other."

South Champ Overworked Bob Jones Is Handicapped

His health is a feature with which the South Champ, who plays as a golfer, has nothing to do. That is something entirely for him and his family to consider. But as to the effect of such a handicap on his game, it is legitimate for the players of the game to call attention to the danger of such a handicap to his golfing style.

His name, like anything else undertaken by a boy of his years, must be in the formative stage and to force him at this period is to threaten him with "premature" and with errors in style that may work essential ruin to his future.

After writing his apparent mastery of every shot, as displayed in the national championship at Merion last year, when he put out former champion Myers and the Pennsylvania champion, Frank W. Dyer, one might be led to believe that such a style is destined to perpetuity, but permanency is hardly to be expected of any aspect of youth.

It would be recalled that the great J. H. Taylor, the British professional, who has been conceded the palm as the greatest master of the machine of all time, lost the knack of playing that club for several years to his utter despair. It seemed for a time he might never reacquaint his old skill, but he persisted practice and patient study, he at last got back his old control of the club.

If such a thing can happen to Taylor, a finished golfer, with his style set, as it were, what stamp may not be possible for a boy still in the formative period?

DELANEY IS VOLUNTEER. Pat Delaney, a Cleveland Indian, was well known here to his wife, whatever was his thought of the strain of his health.

YANKEE OWNER WANTS MANAGER

Col. Ruppert Reported To Be Looking For Successor To Donovan.

Though the owners of the Yankees have decided a rumor which says they are looking for a new manager, the rumor has not died out.

There is no denying the fact that the New York Yankees are a big disappointment, considering the vast sums of money that have been spent by Col. Ruppert and Capt. Huston to build them up—to build to what they thought would be a pennant winner in the American league.

Of course, the Yankees have suffered much hard luck. They have been the unluckiest club in either league in the way of injuries to star players, which continually wrecked the lineup. Yet they will be fortunate to make a first division finish this year, and New York fans have practically given up hope that they can finish as good as fourth in the face of the driving power of other clubs.

The Yankees had their present manager, something like 18 months ago. Since paying out that sum the new owners have spent nearly $100,000 for players—and still no pennant in sight.

These rumors that Bill Donovan is slated for retirement as manager of the Yankees, however, is as well liked as any manager to have had. He has been a friend to both players and the fans are with him. Yet some humor says that the Yankees owners believe that they have found the material for a pennant winner and will give him now manager's chance to try his hand on the reins.

Pimlico Track Being Boosted

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 4.—The Maryland Jockey club, which conducts its racing at Pimlico track, will make the strongest bid this coming season for the support of business and of patrons of racing ever made by a Maryland racing association.

The program for the opening of the first fortnight of November, outlined by the Pimlico directors, compares favorably with any ever offered by the clubs listed today, which was always the most enterprising and liberal of New York racing, concerning the "dark days" of racing at Coney Island.

The Warden, Pimlico's popular rifle race for this year, will have a race of $100,000 added to the fall and in the successful season, the Pimlico cup, a handicap for three-year-olds and colts, will be run and a half-trial instituted in 1918, and won by Pitt Herbert on the occasion of the first racing on the track. The Maryland Jockey club $100,000 as well as the Mable Memorial, a stipendium for four years.

Carpentier Will Come To U. S.

THAT was nothing of the bank about the statement that Georges Carpentier, famous French boxer, is coming to this country. He will be here within the next six weeks and will spend the entire fall in touring the country in exhibition bouts for the benefit of the Red Cross.

This statement is positively made by Dick Martin, international publicist and Carpentier promoter of big events. Dick passed through the city last night on his way to California on some private business. He will remain there about a week and upon his return will go to France, in all probability, and bring Carpentier back with him for the tour.

"There never was a chance of Carpentier coming to this country until the United States entered the European war," Dick said. "But now, leaving for the Pacific coast, several attempts were made to get him for an American tour, but all of those failed because the French army officials frowned severely on the proposition, most of which were for personal gain."

"Now, that the situation has changed, he has little attitude, and they are willing to grant George the necessary leave of absence. He is willing to make the trip, too, as he has been in the service since the outbreak of the war and needs a rest. Besides that, he has been injured several times, and I believe he has more than done his bit."

"He has been awarded the Croix de Guerre and Medal of Honor for distinguished service and heroism."

SUNDAY GOLF IS NOW IN ORDER

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 4.—President was broken at the Onwentsia club, one of the oldest and most exclusive clubs in the vicinity of Chicago, when Sunday golf was ordered there for the first time last week. The fact that members were not allowed on the links until after one o'clock p.m. was violating to most members, until an official of the club explained that barring of the boys was for the purpose of giving them an opportunity to attend Sunday school and church.

Activation for Sunday golf has been in progress for many months and finally prevailed by a vote of 129 to 47.

JOE BOEHLING WILL GET ANOTHER LEAGUE CHANCE

Joe Boehling of the Indians was slated for a quick transfer to Lajoie's international at Toronto. The deal was all but completed, it was learned today, when Joe got in his powers of personal persuasion. He pleaded with manager Ebbets for another chance to make good, and got it.

The Most Beautiful Car in America

The Paige is now reaping the reward of conservative financial policies and sound business judgment.

The creation and the continued maintenance of the quality that has made The Most Beautiful Car in America the overwhelming choice of the public, are due to the advantages the Paige Company possesses. These advantages are:

A capitalization far lower than that of any other company approximating the Paige in the sales-increase during the past six months—in which field, by the way, the Paige has distanced all competitors.

Scientific management that keeps overhead expense down to the minimum.

Huge manufacturing facilities operated by modern, scientific methods.

Low profit per car.

There you have in a nut-shell the reasons you can buy Paige quality at so low a figure in these days of high prices.
